SAN BERNARDINO – The California Department of Transportation (Caltrans) is alerting the traveling public of road closures currently taking place due to storm activity in San Bernardino and Riverside Counties. These road closures are a result of rockfall, debris flows, embankment or slope damages. Each of these closures are in effect due to safety related concerns and we are actively assessing the situation. Please be advised, the duration of these road closures is unknown. Below is a list of current road closures:

- SR-62 closed at Iron Pumping Plant Road to SR-177
- US-95 closed at Wilson Road
- SR-243 closed in both directions from Twin Pines to San Gorgonio Avenue

Motorists are reminded to use caution, slow for weather conditions and use headlights while driving. Motorists should anticipate delays and longer travel time.
